Chief Executive Officer Richard A. Noll and Chief Financial Officer Richard D. Moss will meet with investors and make a presentation on Wednesday, September 11, 2013 at the Goldman Sachs Global Retailing Conference in New York City. The presentation, which will consist of five to 10 minutes of Company remarks followed by a Goldman Sachs-moderated question-and-answer session, will be webcast live from 1:30 to 2:10 p.m. EDT and will be accessible on the Company’s corporate website, www.hanes.com/investors.

Exhibit 99.1 is being “furnished” and shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”), nor shall Exhibit 99.1 be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 (the “Securities Act”) or the Exchange Act, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.

Exhibit 99.1 contains disclosures about free cash flow, which is a non-GAAP measure. Free cash flow is defined as net cash from operating activities less net capital expenditures. Free cash flow may not be representative of the amount of residual cash flow that is available to the company for discretionary expenditures since it may not include deductions for mandatory debt-service requirements and other nondiscretionary expenditures. The Company believes, however, that free cash flow is a useful measure of the cash-generating ability of the business relative to capital expenditures and financial performance. Non-GAAP information, such as free cash flow, should not be considered a substitute for financial information presented in accordance with GAAP and may be different from non-GAAP or other pro forma measures used by other companies.

Statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K and accompanying exhibit that are not statements of historical fact, including those regarding the Company’s future financial results and the Company’s proposed acquisition of Maidenform Brands, Inc., are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Exchange Act. These forward-looking statements are made only as of the date of this report and are based on the Company’s current intent, beliefs, plans and expectations. They involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual future results, performance or developments to differ materially from those described in or implied by such forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include the risks identified from time to time in the Company’s most recent Securities and Exchange Commission reports, including the 2012 Annual Report on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K, registration statements, press releases and other communications. The Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise forward-looking statements to reflect changed assumptions, the occurrence of unanticipated events or changes to future operating results over time, other than as required by law.

HANESBRANDS REAFFIRMS 2013 GUIDANCE IN CONJUNCTION WITH PRESENTATION AT GOLDMAN SACHS GLOBAL RETAILING CONFERENCE

Company also Updates Progress of Maidenform Brands Acquisition; Company Expects the Acquisition to Close by Oct. 8, 2013, Contingent Upon Maidenform Stockholder Approval

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (Sept. 10, 2013) – HanesBrands (NYSE:HBI), a leading marketer of everyday basic apparel under world-class brands, today announced that it is reaffirming its 2013 financial guidance in conjunction with investor meetings and a presentation and webcast Wednesday, Sept. 11, 2013, at the Goldman Sachs Global Retailing Conference.

Hanes reaffirmed its full-year 2013 guidance for sales of approximately $4.55 billion; operating profit of $550 million to $575 million; EPS of $3.50 to $3.65; and free cash flow of $450 million to $550 million. The company's guidance does not reflect any potential contributions or impact from the acquisition of Maidenform Brands, Inc., which is expected to close in the fourth quarter.

“We continue to track to our expectations for significant margin expansion in 2013 with strong year-over-year growth for operating profit, EPS and cash flow,” Hanes Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Richard A. Noll said. “Back-to-school sales started softer than desired, as many retailers have announced, but we saw sell-through trends for our products improve in late August and early September. Our Innovate-to-Elevate platforms continue to succeed and are driving margin expansion.”

Noll and company Chief Financial Officer Richard D. Moss will meet with investors and make a presentation on Wednesday at the Goldman Sachs conference in New York City. The presentation, which will consist of five to 10 minutes of company remarks followed by a Goldman Sachs-moderated question-and-answer session, will be webcast live from 1:30 to 2:10 p.m. and will be accessible via the Hanes corporate website, www.hanes.com/investors.

The company anticipates taking questions at the conference regarding the progress of its proposed acquisition of Maidenform Brands (NYSE:MFB). Hanes announced July 24, 2013, that it had entered into a definitive agreement to acquire Maidenform Brands for $23.50 per share in an all-cash transaction valued at approximately $575 million on an enterprise-value basis.

The acquisition is expected to close by Tuesday, Oct. 8, 2013, pending approval by Maidenform stockholders voting at a special meeting on Thursday, Oct. 3, 2013, and satisfaction of other customary closing conditions.

The acquisition has already received regulatory clearance. Maidenform announced Aug. 28, 2013, that it had been notified by the Premerger Notification Office of the Federal Trade Commission of the early termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976.

As previously communicated, Hanes expects the acquisition to be accretive to earnings per share in the first 12 months after closing and is projected to deliver full benefits within three years of more than $500 million in incremental annual sales, $0.60 in EPS, $80 million of operating profit, and $65 million of free cash flow.

“The acquisition of Maidenform would add to our momentum and true earnings power of our business,” Noll said. “A reasonable goal for 2014 EPS is in the low $4 range, including a potential 10- to 15-cent contribution from Maidenform.”

Note on Non-GAAP Terms and Definitions

Free cash flow is not a generally accepted accounting principle measure.

Free cash flow is defined as net cash from operating activities less net capital expenditures. Free cash flow may not be representative of the amount of residual cash flow that is available to the company for discretionary expenditures since it may not include deductions for mandatory debt-service requirements and other nondiscretionary expenditures. The company believes, however, that free cash flow is a useful measure of the cash-generating ability of the business relative to capital expenditures and financial performance. For 2013 guidance, net cash provided by operating activities is expected to be approximately $500 million to $600 million and net capital expenditures are expected to be approximately $50 million, resulting in expectations for non-GAAP free cash flow of approximately $450 million to $550 million.

Hanes has chosen to provide this measure to investors to enable additional analyses of past, present and future operating performance and as a supplemental means of evaluating company operations. Non-GAAP information should not be considered a substitute for financial information presented in accordance with GAAP and may be different from non-GAAP or other pro forma measures used by other companies.

Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Forward-looking statements include all statements that do not relate solely to historical or current facts, and can generally be identified by the use of words such as “may,” “believe,” “will,” “expect,” “project,” “estimate,” “intend,” “anticipate,” “plan,” “continue” or similar expressions. In particular, among others, statements about 2013 guidance and the HanesBrands acquisition of Maidenform (the “acquisition”), including the expected impact on HanesBrands’ sales, earnings, operating profit and free cash flow, the anticipated funding of the acquisition and the expected timing for closing the acquisition are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements inherently involve many risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in these statements. Where, in any forward-looking statement, we express an expectation or belief as to future results or events, such expectation or belief is based on the current plans and expectations of our management, expressed in good faith. However, there can be no assurance that the expectation or belief will result or will be achieved or accomplished, and actual results may differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements. A number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to our ability to achieve expected synergies and successfully complete the integration of Maidenform, events that could give rise to a termination of the merger agreement or failure to receive necessary approvals or funding for the acquisition, the outcome of any litigation related to the acquisition, and the level of expenses and other charges related to the acquisition and the funding thereof. For further information regarding the risks associated with HanesBrands' and Maidenform's businesses, please refer to their respective filings with the SEC and the proxy statement and other materials that have been filed with the SEC by Maidenform in connection with the acquisition. There can be no assurance that the acquisition will be completed, or if it is completed, that it will close within the anticipated time period or that the expected benefits of the acquisition will be realized. We believe these forward-looking statements are reasonable; however, undue reliance should not be placed on any forward-looking statements, which are based on current expectations. All forward-looking statements speak only as of the date hereof. We undertake no obligation to update or revise forward-looking statements that may be made to reflect events or circumstances that arise after the date made or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, other than as required by law.
